WITH OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

Floyd Clark of Hirschdale has received ford from his son, Sergeant Jay Warren Clark announcing his arrival in New York City where he is studying at the present time. From Machinists Mate 3-c Lloyd Crark, his brother, no recent word has been received from the South Pacific where he has been in active duty.

Ralph Bretthauer, Pfc. in the infantry writes home from North Africa where he describes the climate as hot during the days and cool at night. About all the natives do where he is located is make wine and he says the Arabs are not too clean. "I never saw such people in my life," Ralph declared, "They are the dirtiest people. It looks like they never take a bath. What I've seen so far of this country isn't much, but the more you see of it the better you appreciate the good old USA."

The silence from Camp Hale was broken this week when we had a nice —but short—note from Pfc. George (Bud) Zorich, who expressed regrets over the loss of Jim Thomas and Ed Waters. "It seems like only last week when Ed and I were at your house having a drink," Bud wrote. He reported being transferred and is now right across the company street from Sgt. Karl Kielhofer. He says he sees Bill Cardwell, Fred Hughes and Byron Johnson every day and that they are all well.

Wallace Watkins who is stationed in Texas in the air corps, enjoyed a vacation in Sacramento and came to Truckee with his mother and brother for Memorial Day.

Keith Weeden sent his mother a snapshot this week proving that he now weighs 176 pounds and has gone to six feet while in the coast guard. A gift to Mrs. Weedon was a perfect white coral, tipped with orange and green. Mrs. Weeden's son in law, Lt. Bud Jackson is reported to be among the fliers now blasting the daylights out of "Hitler's supermen". Her eldest son, Elden Alger is now located in Washington but expects soon to be on his way back into the fighting. He is a chief petty officer in the navy and recently visited here.

Mrs. D. Saibini of Boca received a notice from son, Sgt. Raymond Saibini's commanding officer in India or Burma, announcing that Ray has been awarded a good conduct medal because of his splendid record as a soldier. Her other warrior son. Lt (jg.) John Saibini writes home that he is well but does not reveal his whereabouts.

Mrs. Ernest Ghidotti, cousin of Pfc. Augie Esola is in receipt of the Order of the Purple Heart given him following an encounter with the Japs at Bougainville in which he suffered shrapnel wounds. Augie, in a recent letter reported that he was back on duty and planned to get more japs as he had had rumors of his school mate, Jimmy Thomas' death in the same battle. He added a tribute to Jimmy's memory when he wrote that "the japs should have gotten me instead of Jim—he was such a good kid."

Captain Arthur Clopek has written Mr. and Mrs. C. B. White relating his safe arrival in England after a pleasant and uneventful voyage. He thinks England beautiful, very much like the Sacramento valley in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Digesti have learned that Pfc. Harry Digesti, located near Australia, is now with his company headquarters, working in the office and feeling very fit.

Frank Titus, navy aviation cadet, now stationed at Pensacola, wrote home to say that he has a date to meet Gene Barton, a transport pilot at Memphis in the near future, Frank and Gene's trails cross and they hope to get a nice visit together. Frank is now training on the big multimotor ships and has a yen to take over a Mars upon completion of his course.

George Kehlet at Meeks Bay had a recent letter from his sergeant son now located in Corsica with the air force. He has been overseas two long years and hopes for a furlough soon.

Mrs. George Waters received a letter this week from her son, Billy, telling the family he is well but not many other details of his life in the navy. He has been in active service for two years.

Frank Giovannoni is leaving for the induction station tomorrow. Frank is the latest called in selective service, is married and has two children. We had a rumor Frank was going into the navy.

H. A. Wittich of Colfax, who has been a frequent visitor here in past years, received official notice from the war department that his son Richard is dead. The young soldier was at the fall of Bataan and the parents have been waiting for word from him. There still remains a possibility that he escaped to the interior to join a guerilla band.

TRUCKEE GIRL HELD FOR THEFT OF WAR STAMPS AT OFFICE

A 14-year-old Truckee girl was being held in the Nevada County detention home this week charged with looting a postoffice box in the local post-office of approximately $28 in war saving stamps. She was apprehended by Roseville police when she attempted to cash half of the marked stamps there.

The loser was N. S. McCrary, a Southern Pacific engineer, who put the stamps back into the box Saturday morning only to find them gone that afternoon. Constable N. F. Dolley summoned Probation Officer A. W. McGaggan and with a postal inspector, made the investigation and sent word to Roseville, where the girl had gone for a visit, to have her arrested when she attempted to cash the stamps.

MAP BEING MADE OF NEVADA COUNTY

C. D. Jackson, chief of surveys and maps of Region 5 of the United States Forest Service with headquarters at San Francisco, is on the Tahoe National Forest making arrangements and getting basic data so that a field crew at a later date can finish a survey necessary to complete a detailed map of Nevada County made from an aerial survey in 1940.

The map of Nevada County was made possible only by the cooperation of the board of supervisors and the Nevada Irrigation District with the forest service.

GRAZING SURVEY IS MADE IN FOREST

Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe National Forest announnces that a complete inventory of the forest's grazing capacity is under way to determine the full sheep and cattle capacity for each range allotment. The forest service is interested in seeing each range produce the maximum in meat, Ellis said, as the meat supply of the nation is of vital importance both on the home front and the battle lines overseas.

My Place In The Sun

By CPL. DOUG BARRETT

Excerpts from letters from the Canada theater of war operations

The Council on Books in Wartime has issued a veritable library of pocket-sized verbatim editions. Paperbound, the page size 3⅜ by 5⅜ inches and are printed in two columns in good, readable type. The titles range all the way from the Greek philosophers to C. S. Forester, Ernie Pyle and Phillip Guedalla. They cover all fields of literature from theosophical essays to Hopalong Cassidy, and every one a complete book, not a digest. In this edition, I recently found H. L. Mencken's Happy Days and Heathen Days. The first volume covered his childhood and the second his newspaper experiences and impressions of the era ending in 1932. Mencken's style of autobiography is refreshing in that he deals more with events and people around him than with Ego. His vocabulary sparkles like a flawless diamond— and when he employs it, it is just about as hard Both these books were cleverly and concisely written and well worth the effort expended in reading them.

Last night we went up to the local radio station to witness the triumph of a team of staff sergeants of the USAAF over four girls from the Stagettes, a sort of a young business women's organization. Various American soldier teams have faced feminine talent and so far the series stands 4 to 2 in favor of the locals. Next week we hope to even up the series a bit by taking on the women employees of the War Department with a team from the AACS.

Will this war never end and with it the carnage and destruction of our finest young men? In one week I learn of the death of Ed Waters and Jim Thomas. Here were two men—one in his prime, the other on the eve of a useful life—cut short thousands of miles from home, engaged in a pursuit foreign to their natures. Both Ed and Jim were peace-loving and constructive-thinking young men. Our community and our nation have suffered loss beyond measure with the passing of these two alone. When you multiply them by thousands, you wonder if it is worth it at all. To this wondering there is one answer. We have to make it worth their sacrifice. Despite what some half-baked newspaper and radio commentators say, we all know what we are fighting for. Maybe some of us feel it too deeply to be able to speak clearly on it, but in our hearts we know. It is up to us that survive this holocaust to see that those we leave behind in foreign fields will not have died in vain.

POINT VALUES FOR FOODS DECREASE

The Office of Price Administation today announced further relaxation of rationing by reducing the point values on cheese, vegetable and fruit juices, and setting zero point values on more types of meat as the result of increased allowances for civilian use made by the War Food Administration. The point value of all rationed cheese will be reduced to 10 points per pound, effective June 4. All meats except the choicest beef steaks and roast will continue at zero.

The accident occurred six miles east of Truckee when the sedan owned and driven by Seth G. Beach, 33, of Placerville ran off the road about 8:30 a.m.

Mrs. Butts was treated by Dr. J. H. Bernard for minor injuries.

A big Western Truck Lines truck, loaded with general merchandise and traveling east, got out of control and overturned on the Donner Summit grade last Thursday. The driver, Melvin H. Ernst, 29, of Los Angeles, escaped. Ernst said his brakes refused and he was forced to bank the vehicle, causing it to overturn. State Patrolmen Kennett Kolb and Sergeant H. B. SEASONAL RESORTS MUST FILE DATES WITH LOCAL OPA

By WALTER M. BARRETT

It is unfortunate in the conduct of war that the men most actively engaged in the cruel business have nothing to say about when the war starts nor when it ends. After they have fought the fight, encountered all the hardships and privations of war, a few politicians gather about a table somewhere and decide to whom the spoils shall go and other terms of a so-called peace. Maybe that's as it should be, but it does seem that the men on the battle fields and in the hospitals should have a strong voice in what shall be done about their war. However, if such a system could be developed, we doubt very much if there would be wars.

We were not much surprised after an unofficial checkup of local and Lake Tahoe business activities and prospects to find that generally the business transactions of the region this year exceed last year's mark—in some cases over 100 per cent and prospects are brighter than for some years.

Resorts and other firms at Tahoe are either opening or preparing to open for the season and improvements are being made as far as the restrictions brought on by the war will permit. This year virtually every business at the lake will be operated whereas in past years many remained closed while operators engaged in war work or other activities not related to their local establishments.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR CHURCH REVEALED

Rev. William Daly announced this week that during the summer months beginning Sunday, June 4, mass will be held at the Truckee Catholic Church at 8 a.m. and at Tahoe at 10 a.m. Services will be held at Al Tahoe at noon each Sunday starting Sunday, June 18.

Politically Speaking

By Lloyd Latham
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

..SACRAMENTO, June 1.— (UP)— Republican control of the two houses of the state legislature apparently is assured for the next two years on the basis of returns from the May 16 primary.

All but two senate seats were decided by the primary and only 20 of the 80 assembly seats will be contested. In the senate, two Republicans face a run-off—T. H. Delap in Contra Costa county and Nelson Dilworth in Riverside county. Dilworth is an assemblyman who is attempting to move up to take the place vacated by Rep. John Phillips.

If both Delap and Dilworth win in November, the GOP will come out one seat ahead since the 8th state senatorial district which was vacated by Rep. Clair Engle, a Democrat, will be filled by a Republican, Louis G. Sutton.

That would give the Republicans a 25 to 15 advantage in the upper house of the legislature, ocmpared to the 22 to 16 edge they held in the 1943 session. The worst the Republicans can do is a 23 to 17 advantage.

In the assembly a maximum of 20 seats will be contested in November, including 13 seats formerly held by Republicans and 7 seats held by Democrats. In some of the districts the outcome of the primary may be decided by the absentee ballot count.

A recapitulation shows that 33 Republicans won both party nominations in the primary, including one non-incumbent who will take the place of a Democrat incumbent while 27 Democrats won in the primary. An even break in the 20 contests would give the Republicans a 43 to 37 advantage in the lower house, and on statistics alone they could be expected to take more of the contests than that since 13 of the districts now have Republican incumbents.

Estimates of the length of the special session of the legislature which will begin on June 5 continues to rise. Several new technical subjects have been added to the tentative agenda and now it is proposed that a state grant system to encourage post-war planning by cities be made a subject of discussion.

Recommended by the league of California cities, the plan would have the state make grants to cities to be matched by city funds with the combined amounts to be used for preparation of plans and specifications of needed city improvements which have been postponed by the war.

The state reconstruction and reemployment commission is backing the proposal and the commission's director, Col. Alexander R. Heron said he believed it would be the best possible stimulas to local planning.

However, none of the details are worked out and some time would be consumed in the legislature in deciding on the method of matching and the restrictions which would be placed on the state grants.

TUBERCULOSIS FOUND

SACRAMENTO, June 1.— (UP)— At least 800 cases of tuberculosis were discovered last year among persons who had recently moved to Californai, state public health director Wilton L. Halverson, reported this week. Of the 800 cases, all among persons who had lived in California less than a year at the time of the survey, only 100 are receiving acre in county hospitals, the director said in a report to Gov. Warren.

600,000 PERSONS EMPLOYED IN AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY

SACRAMENTO, June 1.— (UP)— The state department of industrial relations today estimated that more than 600,000 persons in California were employed in aircraft and ship building industries in March of this year.

The total included clerical workers in the industries and men nd women working on parts of the two industries. The department, saying federal agencies now are permitting publiction of actual employment figures, reported aircraft plants employed 212,300 persons in March and the shipyards had 262,000 employes.

STATE EMPLOYES MAY NOW TRAVEL BY AIRPLANE

SACRAMENTO, June 1.— (UP)— The state of California apparently believes the airplane is her to stay.

The board of ocntrol recognized the larplane today in revising its rules to permit state employes to travel by airplane at any time they wish. Formerly, they could travel by air only when they could show that it was cheaper than rail travel plus meals.

Also, state workers had to give a reason for using air travel which would satisfy the state controller.

Governor Warren's prompt action in releasing the 50-member California delegation to the GOP National Convention from its pledge to support him for president is being interpreted in political circles as another sign that Mr. Warren is not seeking either the presidential or vice-presidential nomination. But the movement to draft Warren as Dewey's running mate (if the latter is nominated) continues unabated.

Continued Republican control of the State Legislature, our election statistiican reports, is virtually certain on the basis of the primary returns.

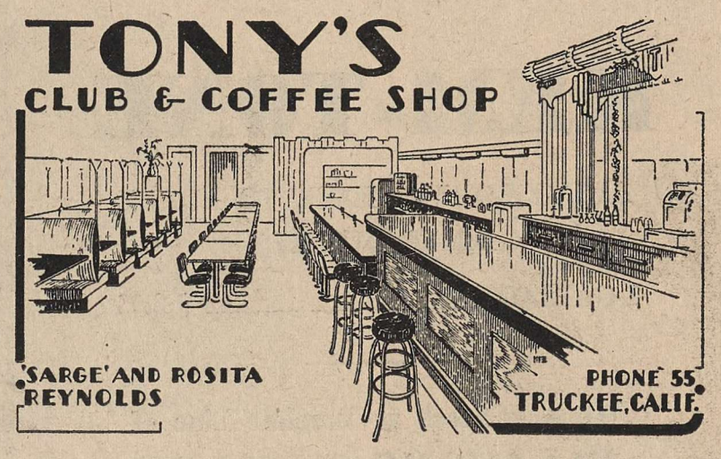

Watch for acton at the special State legislative session, which ocnvenes June 5, sharply condemning congressional legislation sponsored by Secretary Ickes to limit the size of farms in the Central Valley Project area to 160 acres. The legislative resolution promisies to be sizzling.

TAHOE LETTER

To the Service Men

From SWANEE

Tahoe City, Calif.
May 28, 1944

Dear Tahoeites:

It's Sunday again and time for another roundup of the weekly news. Both yesterday and today were marred by thunder and lightning storms, followed by heavy showers, with the sun peeking through very timidly occasionally. Daffodils are nodding now in the garden, and violas too, and here and there I have caught a glimpse of fiery red snowplants, harbingers of spring along with the robins.

I left Tahoe last Sunday morning for Herlong where little grandson Sammie Lee was ocnfined to the army base hospital under the care of doctors. Upon arriving I found him and his mother quarantined, as the poor little guy, besides having a fever of 106 and convulsions when taken there, also had tonsilitis and bronchitis and finally a good dose of German measles. His mother remained with him in the hospital until he was released and I am happy to report that he is now much improved with only a slight cough left.

I entrained on Thursday night at 11 p.m. from Herlong via the Western Pacific for Sacramento and was deicdedly grateful that daughter Phyllis had secured a berth for me as the train was six hours late arriving at the capital. Then I had to ride the bus back to Auburn in the afternoon for gradaution exehcises for the high school. But not before I had made a long anticipated visit with my old friends and former Tahoeites, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hull and family at their lovely new home in West Sacramento. I saw it once before when they first purchased the place, but seeing it so beautifully furnished and remodeled was a real treat. And their garden an dshady back yard proved haven of refuge from the intense heat which prevailed Friday. Dean and his wife were visiting and also their daughter, Floreine, so I got to see most of the family. Dean is with the coast guard patrol, stationed in San Francisco, and Al has been reclassified in 2-A as he is now employed with a trucking concern. I brought them up to date on all the Tahoe news and they in turn sent their best wishes to all their many old Tahoe friends.

Stood and roasted in the bus all the way to Roseville when I finally got a seat. Arriving in Auburn, I was the guest of the Art Sathers until time for the graduation exercises. Visited griefly the Jake Stewarts, former Tahoeites who plan soon to return to the lake for the summer. Mrs. Stewart graciously had picked a large bouquet of sweetpeas and packed them for me to take home and even now they grace my buffet in the dining room. Son Jimmie, accompanied by Dick Hinkle left for Aubur on Wednesday to attend the school picnic and other programs which occupied the three day period and were royally entertained and welcomed throughout their stay. Friday evening, Dick's parents, Dr. and Mrs George Hinkle and Dr. Hinkle's mother, Mrs. Emma Gargan of Penryn, who hosted the boys during their stay, arrived to witness the ceremony. Altogether it was a most memorable eveninng for us proud parents, our sons being privileged to sit in the first row on the stage which had been erected in the gymnasium. The decorative effect was very pleasing with large bowls of snapdragon and sweet-scented stock scattered about, and potted green shrubs lining the stge. Otto Fox's orchestra rendered the processional march as the 120 graduates, in gray caps and gowns marched in from either side of the large hall and took their places. Harold Chastain, district superintendent, in recounting the outstanding activities of members of the graduating class, requested Tahoe's Dick Hinkle, and his parents, to stand as he told, with genuine pride, of Dick's noteworthy tribute recently in being the only student in California selected to participate in the Westinghouse Science Scholarship tests held at Washington, D. C. Because of the honor he brought to the Placer Union High School, by winning a $100 scholarship, Chastain asserted the sponsor company had written for pictures of the school which they plan to publish in ocnnection with next year's scientific contests. Vice-principal Harold Weber, assisted by David Jones, clerk of the board of trustees, presented the diplomas, and Rev. James Philips delivered the invocation and the benediction. Altogether it was a most interesting event to the hundreds of personns who filled the large hall, And a vote of thanks to Mrs. Blanche Hupe in charge of graduation details, who was most helpful to our two graduates from Tahoe.

Might also mention that Buddy Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fox who has summered at Tahoe for the past several years, fraduated from the Placer Junior College Thursday night and no wears the highest award of his class—the school's honor pin. He plans to attend dental college in January and already has completed his pre-dental course. He attended school at Tahoe during several summers and has many friends here.

Forgot to mention too that Dick Hinkle was one of the four graduates awarded a pin signifying life membership in California Scholarship Federtion, for excellent school records.

We had the rare privilege today friend husband and myself, of entertaining two grand boys who accompnied daughter Phyllis over from Herlong for the day. They are Corporal Roger Hillyard and Sergeant James Dawson, both attached to the Herlong Station hospital. The boys had never been to the lake before and their first impressions were certainly most complimentary. They brought along perfectly gorgeous steaks, two inches thick and some real cream! So I made creampuffs so many of you have enjoyed in days gone by, and in spite of the rain, we all enjoyed a lovely day.

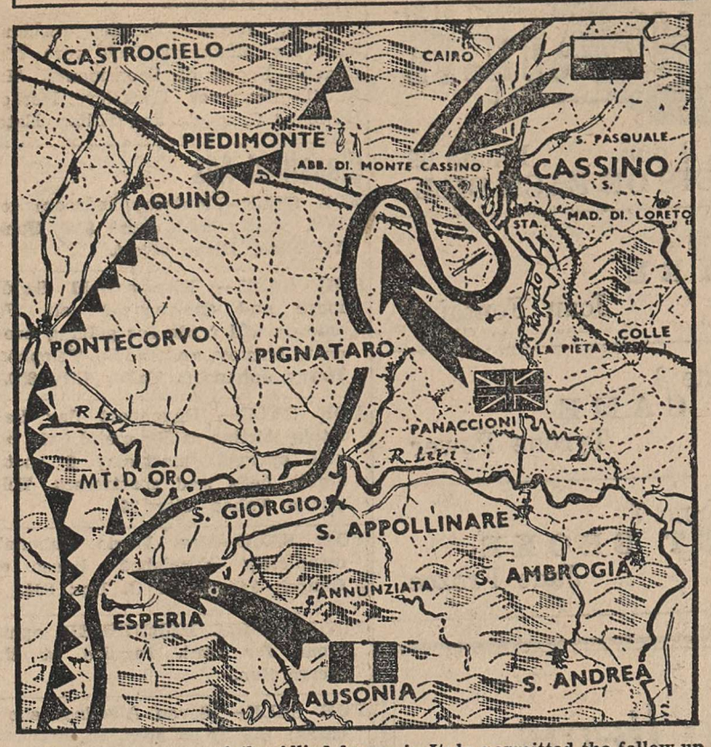

Corporal Hillyard, dietitian at the hospital, is my idea of a real soldier who without heroics is carrying on, respite terrfic handicaps, with his chosen work even though approximately seven days out of every 30 are spent taking medical treatment. He was pres t that fateful hour at Pearl Harbor, and was waiting for the milk truck when the first Jap bombs fell. Before it was over he had been caught in the debris of the falling buildings and among other injuries suffered were seven broken vertebra cracked and the sight gone from his right eye. Doctors told him he could never walk again, during the months he spent in hospitals, but he did, first with the aid of a cane and now unassisted entirely. And although he had been requested time and again to accept a medical dischare and qiut his job, he refuses. He wears the Order of the Purple Heart, Asiatic-Pacific, American Defense and other decorations, and glories in the fact that he is still able to serve his country in helpful manner.

His family history is interesting too for there were seven children born to his mother, Mrs. Ona Hillyard, now 68, who still resides on the family's West Virginia home, where she daily entertains service men from all branches, dining on one occasion 80 men from her son's former company. Of the seven children, two were girls, both nurses, taken prisoners by the Japs at Corrigador from whom onnly one postcard has ever been received. Two of the boys died in the battle and the other two are in Italy and North Africa. With a record like that, no wonder Corporal Hillyard just won't quit! And here's hoping that they favor us with another visit.

Cassino-Rome Theater of War

Recent successes of the Allied forces in Italy permitted the follow-up through the Liri valley for a smashing attack on the Hitler line. Following the fall of Cassino, the German high command threw all the reserves at its immediate disposal against the Allied advance and succeeded in driving the vanguard of American forces out of Terracina, coastal gateway to the Pontine plain, 58 miles southeast of Rome.

ODDS AND ENDS

Now to catch up with odds and ends: Bill Bechdolt at Camp Hale, Colorado, has now advanced to staff sergeant. Congrats Bill! .... Sgt. R. Gordon Spitzen enjoyed a ten-day furlough, visiting his mom, Mrs. Augusta Spitsen at Turlock and with his aunt nd uncle, the Norman Mayfields at Tahoe from Wednesday night to Friday. They are sending him the Sierra Sun, starting this week. He was right in the pink of condition and certainly enjoyed his vacation .... Inow have the addresses of the Henrickson boys, Oliver and Charles, thanks to Eunice Duffee, and will be happy to pass them along to anyone requesting them .... Both boys, Chuck at Camp Howze, Texas and Ollie at Alliance Army Air Base in Nebraska, are hopeing for furloughs in the near future and trips back to Tahoe .... Kay Starrett, Red Cross worker in India from Tahoe and Sergeant Ray Saibini of Truckee, now have each others address and are planning on a get-to-gether very soon in that far away land. Both are stationed traveling distance apart at this writing .... Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Specht of Pinecrest now in for a vacation, tell of a recent visit with their son who had a seven-day furlough in Chicago. He is with the infantry at Camp Claiborne, Lousiana .... Sylvester Burleigh, fromer carpenter employed by Norman Mayfield here, no wa cook in the infantry at Long Beach, recently ennjoyed a visit to Tahoe seeing old friends .... Word from Lee Stoddard, son of the A. C. Stoddards of Lake Forest that he is now stationed in New Hebrides with a navy ordnance division, and well .. .. News from Doug Smith that he has been moved to another San Diego rest hospital, and now undergoing a siege of the measles .... And the good news that June Mandeville, wife of A-C Walter Mandeville, now stationed at Santa Ana airbase, has recovered from the operation she under went in Washoe General Hospital in Reno a week ago Saturday and is now home again at Tallac. Walter was granted a seven-day extension to his furlough home to remain until all danger has passed, and he cherished every moment he spent at Tahoe, which, he declared, he never dreamed anyone could miss so much .... And last but not least, word that Eric Druhn of the Ralph Walker household and husbannd of Mrs. Lee Druhn, has departed from Camp Beale and is now on his way overseas to do his bit for his recently adopted country. May good fortune go with him.

Leave you again for another week and hope I have caught up with most of the popular news, but want to thank you all who remembered my natal day with cards, letters and gifts, it was all most truly appreciated.

Tuesday is Memorial Day ,the day when all Americans, and her allies, too, bow in reverent rememberance of those brave boys who gave their lives that the song of Freedom may still ring the length and breadth of our shores. Let's never forget, let's never minimize their sacrfice, and let's vow not to leave a single stone unturned to prevent in the world's future, the repetition of this cruel, needless slaughter of humanity.

Good luck, good cheer and all the best wishes from the folks back home and may God be with you in the trying days ahead.

As ever,
SWANEE.
